The fee for the Associate Diploma program is £240. This covers all mentor fees plus the examination fee for your portfolio of four essays submitted for the Associate Diploma. Students who also enrol on a Pathways program pay a reduced fee of £160, making a total of £400 for the two programs combined.

The fee for the Fellowship Diploma program is £360. This covers all mentor fees plus the examination fee for your Fellowship dissertation. Students who also enrol on a Pathways or Associate Diploma program pay a reduced fee of £260, making a total of £500 for the two programs combined.

For students who opt to follow Pathways jointly with the Associate and/or Fellowship Diplomas, work towards your Diploma begins after you have completed your Pathways program, using your five Pathways essays as a starting point for further philosophical inquiry.

If you have done any written work related to philosophy you are invited to submit a sample. Alternatively, you can give an account of your philosophical interests, or write a brief review of a philosophy book you have liked. You can send your work either by post to the address below, or as an e-mail attachment to Dr Geoffrey Klempner at G.Klempner@sheffield.ac.uk. You will then be assigned a suitable academic mentor who will remain with you for the duration of your studies.
